A RIFFLE IN PRESBYTERY. pen Makes Another Stand on the King bridge hunday School Matter.

The new Sunday school at Kingsbridge seems ged to be a cause of hard feeling in the New York Presbytery whenever it comes up for dison. This has never failed to be the case in the past, and there was no exception to the rule resterday. In fact, the Rev. George H. Payson the Inwood Presbyterian Church brought the which up with the distinct idea of making Dr. Payson has opposed the establishent of a Sunday school in Kingsbridge from the beginning, and when a proposition was de to establish a church there as soon as pos the he fought the project still more bitterly. He took up the petition of the permes on it, showing to his own satisfaction at sest that the petition was padded as badly as he membership rolls of a district organization the palmy days of ward politics. He was saten in the Presbytery at that time, and to heip insult on injury one of his opponents, distinguished layman, at last month's meeting paracterized Dr. Payson's remarks as being sholly untrue. Dr. Payson did not answer then et yesterday he came expecting to defeat his semies. The business of the Presbytery had only fairly started when he rose to a question of

"A brother," said he, "and a member of the abcommittee of the Sunday school committee which has had charge of the senday school in Kingsbridge, said before this Presbytery that my statements regard-by it were untrue. I have been to see that brother. I have asked him to go over th me the papers in the case, to examine into him to go to Kingsbridge with me and investie requests he has denied, and he insisted on asserting that my statements are untrue Now I wish to repeat what I said, and I challeare that sub-committee to disprove a single statement I shall make, and I ask for the appointment of a committee to investigate the rath of my statements.

In Payson then prepared to read again his gatement regarding the petition which he has already read three times, but the Rev. Dr. Mulay interrupted him with a point of order, say-

The centlemen has asked for privilege merely "The gentlemen has asked for privilege merely to bring into debate again a question that has already been settled. To say in the course of sebate that a statement is not true is no ground for complaint. The brother was not called a—I hate to say the word now, but he wasn't. There was no personal assault on the brother." Moderator Buchanan upheld the point of geler, and an appeal from his decision made by R. Payson was not sustained. Dr. Payson still had a trump card up his sleeve which he now produced. It was an advertisement of meetings is the "Presbyterian chape!" in Kingsbridge in the "Presbyterian chape!" in Kingsbridge and a trump eard up in a sleeve which me how produced. It was an advertisement of meetings in the "Presbyterian chapel" in Kingsbridge and a notice to the effect that the pastor was realy to answer all calls. He said that the card wilfully misstated the facts, that there was no chapel in Kingsbridge and no pastor. He offered a resolution that the Sunday School Committee recall the card and issue a new and correct advertisement.

The Rev. Dr. Chambers, Chairman of the Sunday School Committee, made the point of order that his committee had nothing to do with the card and could not be held responsible. It now began to look as if Dr. Payson's cannon had dwindled into a pop-gun and that he would not have a chance to fire even that when the Rev. Dr. Thompson of the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church interceded for him, and finally he was allowed to read his card and his resolution. Then it transpired that the congregation of the Sunday school had issued the card of its own volition, not realizing that it was wrong, and the text of the state of the card then the matter came to vote it was referred the Sunday School Committee, just where Dr.

Sold Enclaimed Bodies. Albert N. White, former keeper of the Morgue. was found guilty yesterday of the charges brought against him by Superintendent Murphy & Bellevue Hospital last November. Mr. Murby discovered that White was selling unsaimed bodies placed in his charge and approriating the money obtained to his own use. The facts were at once laid before the Board of Charity Commissioners, and they have been inestigating them ever since. Their decision, which was announced yesterday, says:
"Now, therefore, it is resolved, declared, or dered, and adjudged that the said charges are true, and that the said Albert N. White be and is hereby diamissed from the service of the Department of Public Charities, all the Commissioners present sails are partment of Public Charities, all the Commis-sioners present voting aye."

Great difficulty was experienced in getting at the facts, and the investigation was necessarily flow. After evidence was secured showing that White had sold bodies, indictments were re-turned against him by the Grand Jury. He will be tried on the criminal charges at once, and, if found guilty, may be sentenced to five years in the penitentiary.

elty and insane jealousy. She testified that he used to carry a loaded revolver, which he would ometimes flourish in her face and sometimes sometimes fourish in her face and sometimes explode in her presence. The revolver kept her in constant fear, she says, and she thought he might commit suicide. One night he was brought home drunk, and when she expressed surprise at his condition he said:

"I wanted to show you what a devil I can be." She togined that he was jealous of almost every mat she met, and would not even permit priests whom they both knew to call. A lawyer bat she had known since she was a girl also extited his jealousy. When she took pains in dressing for the street he would say that she was trying to attract the admiration of other men.

The case went over until to-day, when his side will probably be given.

CO-RESPONDENT A MYTH?

fintice Pryor Won't Decide, and Leaves the the conclusion of the trial of the divorce wit of John C. Scully, a contractor, against his wife Lena, in which she set up that her husband had invented a mythical co-respondent, Henry osteen, and had made her put that name in a confession she wrote at his dictation, Justice Pryor of the Supreme Court said yesterday that the evidence was so conflicting that he would have difficulty in deciding it, and that he would prefer to have the issue of adultery tried by a liry. The lawyers finally agreed to this and issues will be framed for a jury trial.

During the day an alleged photograph of Josten in ovidence was identified by John H. Grimes, called as a witness by the defence, as a lkeness of John Smith, a brother of the defendant.

Administrator of Dr. May's Estate Removed. WASHINGTON, May 10.-A case decided in the Supreme Court to-day had its origin in a seriour difference among the members of the family of the late Dr. William May of New York and Washington, of which Mrs. W. C. Whitney is a washington, of which Mrs. W. C. Whitney is a member, growing out of the administration of the estate of the decedent. His will named his wife and son, John May, as joint executors, with a provision that heirs might ask the court to remove either one. A petition was filed by Mrs. May and all her children save John, asking for the removal of the latter, alleging incompetence in the management of the trust. The petition was granted by the Probate Court, and that action has been approved by all the courts to which John May appealed. The decision to-day ends the case.

GULLER'S TRIBULATIONS.

Pigtown's Wicked Boys Persecute the Fiat bush Baptist Dominic.

The Rev. Henry J. Guller, pastor of the Lenox Road Baptist Church, Flatbush, has got more tribulations. Recently a faction tried to have him ousted. Then his choir deserted him be-cause he suggested that a choir's duty was to sing, not talk, in church. On Sunday the pastor appealed to the Flatbush police for protection against a gang of malicious boys who have per secuted him. While the morning services were in progress the youngsters gathered in front of the church and howled when the choir sang. Driven off, they returned and chalked phrase not Biblical on the front and sides of the edifice. They were chased away a second time. One hurled a bad apple through a window. It whizzed close to Mr. Guller's face while he was preaching. His complaint induced Capt. Knipe to detail two men to guard the church Sunday evening.

The boys live in what is known as Pigtown. Not long ago they broke into the church and stole the pastor's rubber baptismal trousers. The loss was not discovered until one night when Mr. Guller was about to baptize some converts. He had to postpone the ceremony for a week until he could get another outfit. It was the same gang who not long ago tied the doors of the Lenox Road M. E. Church while the congregation was at worship. The people could not get out until a young man climbed through the window and unfastened the rope. OFFICIAL SCANDAL AT ROCKAWAY The Queens County Grand Jury Will Have

Justice Maddox, in the Supreme Court in Brooklyn yesterday, vacated a temporary in-junction obtained by Richard H. Carman, a contractor of Far Rockaway, restraining the Board of Sewer Commissioners of Far Rockaway from awarding to John Guilfoyle of Brooklyn a contract to build a pumping station for $12,000.

Mr. Carman says that his bid was $10,890, and that by awarding the contract to Guilfoyle public money is wasted. He also submitted an affidavit from William Maccolini of Hempstead, who alleges that he was asked to take charge of the work on the stipulation that he would pay to the Commissioners 25 cents a day for each laborer employed, deducting that sum from the wages of the laborers, but returning a receipt for $1.50 each day for each laborer. Maccolini alleged that this savored of bribery, and he declined to take the work. Nicola Blais secured the work and is said to pay his men $1.50. Justice Maddox said that Carman's remedy was in a taxpayer's suit and directed that the affidavit of Maccolini be submitted to the next Grand Jury in Queens county, so that if found to be true the evidoers might be punished, and if false the deponent be dealt with accordingly.

The application of "The Society of the War of Eighteen Hundred and Twelve" for an injunction to restrain "The Society of the War o Eighteen Hundred and Twelve in the State of New York" from continuing to use that name pending an action for permanent injunction has been granted by Justice Beach of the Supreme Court. Justice Beach says:
